

I am so disappointed with the Sinclair New Group. That bold, flagrant viewing of that biased documentary concerning Senator Kerry has made me forever distrust any new or information coming out of your organization. Colin Powell's son should not be in that job and newspapers are still the only source of my information.
God save you